Tax Service Agreement

This letter is to inform you of the services we will provide you with, and of your responsibilities for the preparation of your tax returns.

Tax Return Preparation Services:

- We will prepare your federal (Form 1040/1040NR) and state tax returns/forms based on information and documents you provide.
- This engagement does not include any audit or verification of your books or records. However, we will decline to prepare any tax returns that appear frivolous or unsubstantiated.
- While we are committed to filing the most advantageous and accurate tax return for you, we can opt to stop working with you without refund of fees if you are uncooperative in providing the information we are required to solicit from you during our work. This information may require you to (1) answer very personal questions about your income, expenses, family members, immigration status, health, marital status, business operations, investments, property, records, etc.; (2) provide past year tax return copies; and (3) complete and sign our tax interview forms.
- We guarantee the accuracy of our service. If an error happens, we'll take care of it, no questions asked.
- All invoices are due and payable at presentation. Unless specified in writing, our fees do not cover the cost of amending returns or representing you during tax audit/collection proceedings. If your return is selected for audit/collection action, we can represent you before the IRS/State tax authority under a separate contract.
- Self-employment/rental/business tax preparation fees do not include costs for bookkeeping or reconstruction of mileage, basis, or depreciation. You are expected to maintain accurate Profit and Loss statements, mileage logs, and depreciation worksheets for these items. We can offer you bookkeeping and reconstruction services for an extra fee under a separate contract. Likewise, additional fees shall be required to assist you with compliance with the Corporate Transparency Act compliance (beneficial ownership information reporting); S-Corp Reasonable Compensation requirements; and State tax filings beyond the scope of a state income tax return.
- Any information you share with a tax preparer during the tax preparation interview is confidential, but that does not mean that it is protected from the IRS. The IRS can summon communications between you and us. Also, we cannot disregard the implications of any information you provide in the process of preparing your tax return.
- The engagement to prepare your tax returns terminates upon delivery of your completed returns. We deliver copies of your returns digitally-via your free, secure, portal account-or by secure mail services. Please download and keep copies of your tax returns (along with your supporting documents) for at least seven years.

Taxpayer Responsibilities:

- You agree to provide us all your income and deductible expense information so that substantially correct amounts of income, deductions, and tax can be reported. This responsibility includes completing and signing our tax organizers.
- If you receive additional information after we begin working on your return, you will contact us immediately to ensure your completed tax returns contain all relevant information.
- You affirm that all expenses or other deduction amounts are accurate and that you have all required supporting written records. In some cases, we will ask to review your documentation.
- You must be able to provide written records of all items included on your return if audited by either the IRS or a State tax authority. We can provide guidance concerning what evidence is acceptable.
- You must review the return carefully before signing to make sure the information is correct.
- Couples filing jointly must both sign all tax returns.
